Wendy Christiansen
(Teacher)

She is the youth leader for the Community Inclusion Program along with the many other hats she wears. She is a teacher at Peninsula High School, a mother, and a Person Center Planning facilitator. She leads, mentors, and models youth with and without disabilities to become leaders in their own communities. Her contribution has a large impact on the students she teaches and mentors. She is an investment in our future for youth with and without disabilities to be able to grow into confident, healthy adult leaders of tomorrow.
